INTERNATIONAL

The International Co-ordinating Committee of Vishwa Hindu Parishad in Bhaarat (India) liaises with the VHP in various countries. Its activities are streamlined through five zones that cover the globe and broadly correspond with the continents. In each country, the local organisation works independently in pursuit of the objectives of the VHP in harmony with the laws of that country. The international objectives and activities are as follows:-

International Objectives

1. Raising among Hindus awareness of Dharma, its tenets, traditions and customs.
2. Providing social service to those in need (sewa).
3. Establishing and strengthening links with other faith groups.
4. Working to create an effective voice for the Hindu community world-wide.
5. Training Hindu priests. The focus of activities is on promoting Hindu Dharma and culture. These include training Hindu priests to provide a service at the temples and to Hindu families in Bhaarat as well as, and especially, in other countries where there is a great, unmet need for such priests.
6. Co-ordinating with VHP organisations based in various countries, and to offer support in all activities consistent with its objectives.
